

Helping Canadians with disabilities save for the future

Enabling Canadians, with RDSPs made easy.

That's better together

We've made it easy for over 60,000 Canadians to open a Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP). We can make it easy for you too.

An RDSP empowers families to save for the long-term financial security of loved ones with a disability. The federal government can help you save, adding up to $4,500 each year to the amount you contribute.

Top 4 tips to maximize savings

- 1 Start saving early
Make it automatic by enrolling in a pre-authorized contribution plan.
- 2 Contribute every year
In order to get the maximum annual CDSG and CDSB, if applicable.
- 3 Plan your withdrawals
Planning helps to avoid federal grant and bond repayments.
- 4 Carry forward grants and bonds
Take advantage of carry-forward for CDSG and CDSB.

The sooner you start saving, the earlier you can start building long-term financial security.

Why?

Why RDSPs are the best way to save

- 1 Anyone can contribute to an RDSP with written consent of the account holder.
- 2 The total lifetime contribution for each beneficiary is $200,000, with no annual contribution limits.
- 3 Contributions can be matched, based on family net income, with up to $3,500 a year in Canada Disability Savings Grants (CDSG), and up to $1,000 a year in Canada Disability Savings Bonds (CDSB).
- 4 The money you contribute grows tax free.
- 5 Savings and withdrawals do not affect federal or many provincial income-tested benefits.
- 6 Carry forward on CDSG and CDSB back to the date of diagnosis, to a maximum of 10 years. The maximum grant for a single year per account is $10,500 and maximum bond is $11,000.

Who?

Who qualifies for an RDSP?

To qualify for an RDSP, the beneficiary must:

- Be a recipient of the Disability Tax Credit
- A resident of Canada
- Less than age 60
- Have a valid Social Insurance Number

How?

How the Canadian Government can help

Canada Disability Savings Grant

Through the CDSG, the Government deposits money into your RDSP, providing matching grants of 300%, 200% or 100%, depending on the amount contributed and the beneficiary's family net income. The maximum is $3,500 per year, with a lifetime limit of $70,000.

Canada Disability Savings Bond

Through the CDSB, the Government deposits money into the RDSPs of low and modest-income Canadians. If you qualify for the bond, you could receive up to $1,000 a year, with a lifetime limit of $20,000.

Withdrawing your money

RDSP withdrawals must begin by the end of the year the beneficiary turns 60. You may withdraw funds earlier, but be sure to note that once a withdrawal of any amount is made, $3 worth of federal grants and bonds paid into the RDSP in the previous 10 years must be repaid for every $1 withdrawn.

Withdrawals will consist of non-taxable contributions, taxable Government monies and taxable growth.
